

Homestay Report 5

Yumi Tsuyuki

Hello. Today, Miu and I went to a local shopping mall with my host family. Then we went for skating after a long time. After skating they took us to the Times Square. It was so awesome!!! The lights of the buildings were so beautiful. I bought some gifts of NYC and America there. We also went to Starbucks and McDonald's. I was happy because I really wanted to go to those places in America. Next, I went to M&M's to buy chocolates. There were a lot of people there!!! I heard not only English but also French, Korean, Spanish and Japanese! A lot of people were the visitors from countries around the world! I want to go there again.

My host family was nice and kind. The 5- year-old host brother was pretty cute, but he had some problems. He threw his toy cars and he was loud. But he hugged me a lot, and his smile was cute. The host father made Jamaican breakfast for us, which was so delicious.

This was my first time to eat Jamaican food, but I liked it.

Today was such a NICE day!
